Norfolk Island Lures Visitors With Stimulus Package Deal

Norfolk Island has responded quickly to the Government's latest economic stimulus strategy with a great value deal to spend the $900 cash handout on.

Norfolk Island Tourism General Manager Terry Watson said the package offers a timely, value-packed opportunity to spend time in one of the region's most beautiful and relaxing locations.

He said the government's latest stimulus payments, which are being rolled out from this month, virtually amount to a free Norfolk Island holiday.

"Norfolk is an ideal place for guests to forget about these challenging times and immerse themselves in the history and natural beauty of the island," Mr Watson said.

"This package is exceptional value and I would urge people to act quickly because it won't last," he said.

For just $899* per person the package includes return airfares from Sydney, Melbourne or Brisbane, twin share accommodation for seven nights, car hire for seven days (insurance and petrol extra), a free history lovers pack including entry to one museum, 'A Walk in the Wild' rainforest experience, mini golf and a bonus discount shopping card.

The price is valid until June 2009 for packages booked six months ahead of the travel date until March 2010. Conditions apply, subject to availability and Norfolk Island departure tax is extra.
